SUBJECT:

In regards to the PSC ruling I am upset at the fact they believe there should be an increase at the pump for CNG with out just cause. I sold my fully loaded F-150 at a loss and bought a Chevy K-2500 plain Jane pickup. I did this for two main reasons lower price for fuel (CNG) and the fact CNG is about as clean burning fuel you can use. I have to go way out of my way to buy the CNG and fill up twice a week. My truck is bi-fuel if the PSC goes through with the price increase I will go back to buying gasoline and add to the smog. Utah could become the leader in the nation for the CNG industry the pace setting state for clean burning fuel, the choice of the PSC will kill it.
