Re: QUESTAR GAS COMPANY, Account No. [redacted]

Dear Arminda Jurgenson,

Thank you for QUESTAR GAS, et al, letter dated September 12, 2012 (enclosed) sent through USPS RRR and QUESTAR GAS, et al, confession to theft of funds. The only acceptable response was either – credit the account referenced above or send two affidavits, signed under penalty of perjury. QUESTAR GAS, et al, has done neither.

Also QUESTAR GAS, et al, confession of breaking public policy, wherein QUESTAR GAS, et al, states "Questar Gas is only able to accept legal tender for the un-paid amounts on account no. [redacted]", but then QUESTAR GAS, et al doesn't follow it's own policy of accepting legal tender.

Note the Federal Laws,

> STAT 48 (112), circulating notes of the Federal Reserve banks shall be "legal tender" for all debts.

Also

> U.C.C. §3-603 (b) if tender is refused, there is discharge.

The time allotted for such "honorable" responses having lapsed, I am left with no other choice than to file the IRS forms for QUESTAR GAS, et al.

The previous edicts are still in force.

Re: Questar Gas Company, Account No. [redacted]

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Fuell:

This letter is in response to the recent customer calls from Mr. Fuell requesting an affidavit from Questar Gas Company ("Questar Gas") regarding a money order returned by the issuing bank. Questar Gas assures you that this letter is accurate and verified to the best of Questar Gas' knowledge.

On May 18, 2012, Questar Gas' payment processing department posted a money order for $195.00 that was sent to Questar Gas for payment on account no. [redacted]. On May 29, 2012, the money order was returned unpaid. The money order was stamped "REFER TO MAKER" and "RETURN UNPAID NON-TREASURY ITEM." Questar Gas is only able to accept legal tender for the unpaid amounts due on account no. [redacted].

Questar Gas, then, followed its standard procedures upon notification of returned payments, as explained in Linda Kizerian's letter to you dated July 11, 2012. As a courtesy, Questar Gas waived the $20.00 'Returned check' fee as authorized in Section 8.03 Fees and Charges of the Questar Gas' Utah Natural Gas Tariff, PSCU 400, as approved by the Public Service Commission of Utah.

The returned money order, a copy of which is attached and also provided to you by Ms. Kizerian, should serve as evidence that payment was not made on your account. According to the Questar Gas records, the last payment on account no. [redacted] was made on March 19, 2012.

As a result, account no. [redacted] is delinquent and requires payment. According to Questar Gas records, an urgent notice of pending service termination was left on the door at service address 207 West Plumtree Lane Apt 21, Midvale, Utah, on September 6, 2012.

In order to avoid any further collection activity in accordance with Questar Gas procedures, Questar Gas requires immediate payment in full of $204.47. If you have any further questions, please call 801-324-5555.

Sincerely,

Arminda Jurgenson
Attorney for Questar Gas
